

Norwich Theatre Royal - Terms and Conditions

General Terms & Conditions

- By accepting your order a legally binding contract between Norwich Theatre Royal and you is created. This contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law, and the English courts shall have jurisdiction to resolve any disputes.
- By placing your order you warrant that all details you provide to us for the purpose of booking, ordering or purchasing goods or services are correct, that the credit or debit card you are using is your own and that there are sufficient funds to cover the cost of the ticket or service. If there are any changes to the details supplied by you it is your responsibility to inform us.
- Tickets are sold by Norwich Theatre Royal Trust Ltd on behalf of producers, promoters and third party event organisers. Registered Charity No. 262259.
- Norwich Theatre Royal staff are authorised to refuse admission to the theatre and reserve the right to do so if in their absolute judgement your conduct is such that it is likely to disrupt or disturb other persons attending the theatre. Norwich Theatre Royal also reserves the right to terminate your permission to be on the premises and remove you therefrom in similar circumstances.
- The use of mobile phones and the making of recordings or photography, with or without flash, within the auditorium are strictly forbidden.
- Norwich Theatre Royal is a non-smoking establishment. Smoking including e-cigarettes is not permitted.
- Norwich Theatre Royal reserves the right for themselves or third parties to carry out general filming and sound recording in or around the building. Purchase of a ticket signifies the holder's consent to be photographed or sound recorded and to the commercial exploitation of such film or recording without any right to payment. Any ticket holder who objects to being photographed or recorded must advise the Duty Manager before the performance begins.
- Norwich Theatre Royal cannot be held responsible for any personal property.
- Hot Drinks, Glasses or Chinaware are not permitted into the auditorium. Only soft drinks purchased in plastic containers provided at the Norwich Theatre Royal bars are permitted.
- Norwich Theatre Royal reserves the right to alter or vary the performance / event due to events or circumstances beyond Norwich Theatre Royal's control without being obliged to refund monies or change tickets. This does not affect your statutory rights.
- Norwich Theatre Royal cannot guarantee the appearance of any cast member at any performance.

Tickets

- All tickets are subject to availability.
- All ticket prices in print and online are subject to change at any time. Always check for the most up to date prices with Box Office directly on 01603 630000 or online at www.theatreroyalnorwich.co.uk
- Up to £1 of the ticket price paid for certain shows goes to the Norwich Theatre Royal Building Improvement Fund.
- It is a condition of sale in respect of all tickets that a ticket is only valid for admission to the performance it was booked for if at no time it has been sold or exchanged at a price or value that is more than the price paid for it at the Norwich Theatre Royal Box Office. Any ticket which has been at any time sold in contravention of this condition is void and will not admit the holder to the performance.

- Confirmation of receipt of your order by e-mail does not guarantee the ticket sale (internet sales only).
- Every member of the audience must be in possession of a valid ticket. Altered or defaced tickets will not be valid.
- It is the responsibility of the customer to check the date, time and show on your tickets as mistakes cannot always be rectified.
- All bookings made via the Telephone Box Office or Online are subject to a £1.50 postage fee per transaction; bookings made within 7 days of the performance will be available for collection at the Box Office.
- Subject to proof and at the discretion of the Box Office lost tickets will be replaced free of charge.

Cancelled or Rescheduled Shows

- Norwich Theatre Royal will notify ticket holders of a show/performance cancellation with reasonable endeavours. However, we cannot guarantee that ticket holders will be informed before the date of the performance due to circumstances beyond our control.
- If a show/performance is rescheduled then ticket holders will be offered an equivalent value ticket of their original purchase.

Ticket Resell & Exchange

- If you cannot use tickets already paid for, Norwich Theatre Royal can exchange them for another performance (7 days notice required). Alternatively, tickets can be offered for resale to personal callers where similar tickets are otherwise unavailable. To exchange or resell tickets, the originals must be returned to the Box Office. Either service is subject to a handling charge of £2 per ticket.
- Except to the extent of the above two services or in the event of cancellation of a performance no refund or part thereof is available after a ticket is purchased.

Latecomers

- Possession of a valid ticket authorises admission of the holder to the auditorium immediately before the performance begins but once the performance has begun the following applies. To avoid disturbing the audience and performers, latecomers will not be allowed access to the auditorium until a suitable point in the performance designated by the company, which may not be until the interval. It may be possible to follow the performance on closed circuit television in the bars.

Comments & Complaints

- Any complaints regarding the show or view from the seats should be made to the Duty Manager promptly, prior to or during the performance.
- If you do have a comment or complaint, please email info@theatreroyalnorwich.co.uk or write to Executive Director, Theatre

Royal, Theatre Street, Norwich NR2 1RL and we will endeavour to respond within 5 working days.

Younger Audiences

- For certain shows, babies and children under 3 are welcome and may share a seat with you. For shows which do not qualify for this option, we regret children under 3 are not admitted to the auditorium.
